

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. My quality of life has been greatly enhanced by this protection. I pay for my telephone as a necessity of modern life and to communicate; not as a free open door for telemarketing people to disrupt my life. The FCC should help protect The People from what borders on harassment. Please protect my right to keep my communications open without allowing unwanted solicitation, on a service paid for by me.